

Respect and Awe for Allah

On that day they will follow the Summoner who has no crookedness in him at all. Voices will be humbled before the All-Merciful and nothing but a whisper will be heard. On that Day intercession will not be of any use except for him whom the All-Merciful has authorised and with whose speech He is well-pleased. (Surah Ta Ha, 108-109)

You will see them as they are exposed to it, abject in their abasement, glancing around them furtively. Those who believe will say, 'Truly the losers are those who lose themselves and their families on the Day of Rising.' The wrongdoers are in an everlasting punishment. (Surat ash-Shura, 45)

They are arrogant even there. They glance furtively from sideways.

Be moderate in your tread and lower your voice. The most hateful of voices is the donkey's bray.' (Surah Luqman,19)

When there is no respect for Allah, Allah may punish.

Be moderate in your tread and lower your voice. The most hateful of voices is the donkey's bray.' (Surah Luqman,19)

One can not use an inappropriate manner of speech against Allah. Nor can he against the Prophet (saas).

On the Day it comes, no self will speak except by His permission. Some of them will be wretched and others glad. (Surah Hud, 105)

It is not an environment like a cafe. They cannot speak without Allah's permission.

...those who join what Allah has commanded to be joined and ARE AFRAID OF THEIR LORD and fear an evil Reckoning; (Surat ar-Ra'd, 21)

A Muslim cannot even imagine a reckless speech.
