

Some hadith from the shiite resources about the students of the Mahdi (as)

"They are clear-sighted and down to earth. They do not show any interest to the possessions of this world, they have faith and awisdom... They are devout believers by night, and become lions by day. They are experts in compassion, mercy, honor and struggling. They are steel-hearted and have strong faith. They are tireless, powerful. They are so powerful that if they are sent to the mountains they riddle and take them down. They believe in the All-Mighty, follow Hazrat Mahdi (as) and submit to him. They love the Islamic creed and crave to reach to Allah, they are devoters who were disciplined on the verge of dangers and difficulties,, They love to strive and . Patience is a feature of them. Trust in Allah is their way of life. They are steel-hearted, iron-willed, those who pray at night, abstemious, courageous and valiant people, each with the strength of forty men,. (Safi Golpaygani, Muntakhab al-Asar, p.486)

"IT IS LIKE I SEE THEM;
THEY OBEY TO HAZRAT MAHDI (AS) AS BEING IN THE SAME COMPLEXION, THE SAME HEIGHT, THE SAME FACE AND THE SAME DRESS" (Ibn Tawus, Kitab al-Malahim wa al-Fitan, P.122)

Both these hadiths are taken from Javad Muhaddisi's book named "Morning of Hope". P. 55

