

Surat at-Tur, 44-45 (We are in the End Times)

Excerpt from Mr. Adnan Oktar's live interview dated September 8, 2010

If they saw a lump of heaven falling down, they would just say, 'Banked-up clouds!' Leave them then until they meet their Day when they will be struck down by the Blast: (Surat at-Tur, 44-45)

Allah is saying, "If they see a lump of heaven falling down they will just say it is banked up clouds." At the moment it looks as if there is a cloud banked up all around the Earth.

Allah has postponed the Last Day by way of Hazrat Mahdi (as). The coming of Hazrat Mahdi (as) is the cause of the postponement of the Last Day. It has been postponed so that the Prophet Jesus (as) can help Hazrat Mahdi (as) and so that Islam can rule for one last time.
