

The Impact Of Atlas Of Creation

The e-Rooster Blog site, which carries the views of Greek readers, contained an evaluation of the Atlas of Creation on March 1, 2007. The analysis said:

“Packages sent to students and teachers in various schools in France, Germany and Holland arrived in recent weeks. This book was dispatched as a ‘gift’ by the Global publishing house in Istanbul...”

The book, consisting of 788 illustrated colorful pages, tells the reader that the evolution of species never happened, and that God created all plants, animals and human beings...

What makes Harun Yahya different is that he refers to the theory of evolution as the source of terrorism. He also states that the real causes of September 11 and the Holocaust need to be sought in Darwinism...”

The screenshot shows the e-rooster Blog website. The header includes the logo "e-rooster Blog" with the tagline "Ubi Dubium, Ibi Libertas" and a quote by Milton Friedman: "Underlying most arguments against the free market is a lack of belief in freedom itself." The main content area features an article titled "The Atlas of Creation" dated Πέμπτη, Μάρτιος 01, 2007. The article text discusses the book's arrival in Greece, its 788 pages of illustrations, and its critique of evolution. A sidebar on the left lists various categories in Greek, and a "Features" section at the bottom left lists several links related to the blog and the author.
